NORTH CAROLINA.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

A KU KLUX OUTRAGE.

A Wisconsin paper has come in possession of the following particulars of a little Ku Klux outrage which was recently perpetrated in Alabama. The boys were rather severe in their treatment of Mrs. Bagget, but she probably deserved it, and ought to thank her stars that she was not seriously hurt:

"A horrible outrage was committed somewhere in the State of Alabama a few days ago. Our informant is a reliable colored man, who heard the particulars from a member of the "loyal league," who got his information from a fellow who lost a cousin in the late war. It seemed that a Mr. Carpet Bagger was attacked in his own house by 1,632 Ku Kluxers, armed with double barrelled bowie knives. They slaughtered and ate nineteen of Mr. Bagger's children before his eyes, and compelled Mrs. Bagger to cut her own head off and hang it on a hook in the cellar. She was then ordered to keep still upon pain of instant death.—She happened to sneeze, and the leader of the dastardly crew immediately had a thrashing machine set up, and run Mrs. Bagger through. It's very doubtful if she recovers.

Mr. Bagger was then forced to swallow four tons of gunpowder and a handful of nitro glycerine. He was next dieted on live coals until an explosion took place, which subjected Mr. Bagger to such intense pain as almost to deprive him of reason.—They next shot him full of holes, made him hurrah for Jefferson Davis and Horace Greeley, and finally inoculated him with the small pox, and soaked him with strong lye. He was threatened with instant death if he revealed the names of any of the perpetrators of this outrage, all of whom neighbors of Mr. Bagger, and who hate him because Mr. B. was a loyal sutler and cotton speculator during the war, and now lives on a confiscated plantation with enough niggers to elect him to the Legislature. It is feared that Mr. Bagger has sustained such internal injuries that he is not able to appear as a witness at the military commission appointed to try some ex-rebels for reading Democratic newspapers."

SCHOOL COMPOSITION—ON POLITICS.—Politics is a hard word. I don't just know what it means. I guess it is a sort of sickness. People who have this sickness meet together in the evening and howl and talk. Pa has 'em bad. He goes out five nights in the week, and doesn't stay at home the other night. He has 'em so bad that he can't walk straight when he comes home.

I used to think politics was something good to eat.

Ma says she thinks it is something good to drink.

I went once to a meeting where they had politics bad. A man got up and called another man who wasn't there all sorts of names. He said he belonged to the other party. He said the country was going to ruin, and we should all be ground to powder in the crash. I told ma I thought he was talking about earthquakes. Earthquakes is in my last geography lesson. I dont like geography much. Bill Brown calls it goggerfee. But goggerfee is a good deal better than politics.

Pa says when I grow up I shall understand politics; but I don't like the taste of it, except when ma makes it up in egg nog. When I'm a man I mean to have a horse and a cow, and go to the theatre, and be a policemen, and keep a candy store, and have a balloon, and dance on the tight rope, and be a clown like "Humpty Dumpty," and go to church once a year and to the Central Park twice a week, and in swimming three times a day. But I don't want any more politics.—N. Y. Commonwealth.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. O A GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES YOU ARE THE BETTER TO TAKE. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT. BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

AN INFAMOUS LIBEL.

The "Woman Insulter," the organ of the Radical party, published in this city, vented its cowardly spleen upon the ladies of the State and the South.

Col. Dewesse, the carpet-bag mis-representative from this District in the fragmentary Congress, in that remarkable speech of his, delivered just before the adjournment, in favor of arming the negroes, vented his spleen upon the white men of the State.—The attack was manlier than that of the "Woman Insulter," but it was an infamous and false aspersion upon the character of the people, among whom the author has squatted, and of whom he knows nothing, though they know more of him than he is, perhaps, desirous they should know.

We have before us a printed copy,—the copy prepared by himself for the Press,—of the speech referred to. After claiming, very properly, that "us carpet-baggers" were the representatives of the negroes exclusively, he said:

"I will tell him (Mr. Brooks) that down South they do not allow you to stay in the Democratic party unless you steal and rob, and I do not think he will do that. With us Democracy means treason, crime, bloodshed, and everything known to the criminal law."

Now no one knows better than Dewesse that the Democratic and Conservative party numbers nineteen twentieths of the white men of the South,—embracing its intelligence, virtue and worth. And yet here is this man, uttering, upon the floor of the House of Representatives, and afterward deliberately publishing to the world, this infamous aspersion upon the great mass of our fellow citizens! People of the Fourth District, MARK HIM!

After all, it is but the old cry of "Stop Thief!" Dewesse's party, through its recognized organ, the "Woman Insulter," and through eighty-eight members of the Legislature, advises the negroes to burn, steal and slay, rather than "suffer,"—through its officiary, it is plundering the State Treasury with wasteful appropriations,—it is inciting the blacks to conflict and crime,—it is waging a treasonable crusade against the Constitution of the country,—and yet he has the effrontery to accuse the white men of the State with "stealing, crime and bloodshed!"

Out upon the carpet-baggers!

DR. D. R. SMITH has been nominated, by the Democrats of Wayne, as a candidate for the House of Representatives, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Jno. C. Rhodes. He is said to be the strongest man in the county.

TAXES! TAXES!

The present tax bill, under which the Sheriffs are selling the lands and homesteads of our people, to force out of them their taxes, will not raise $300,000. Every tax-payer will, therefore, be able to form some idea of the heavy burden which is coming upon him, for the year 1869, UNDER RADICAL RULE.

The Legislature, at its first session, determined not to cut the throat of the party before the Presidential election, by the passage of a heavy tax bill, to meet the large increase of the expenses of the State government, the school tax, the tax for a special militia, the tax for the Penitentiary, &c. All these matters were deferred, to be acted upon after the Presidential election, when the party might not suffer detriment by a full exhibition of its reckless extravagance. But enough is known, both of the extravagance and waste and peculation upon the Public Treasury of the National government, as well as of the State government, by the Radical party, to seal its fate.

The last exhibit made by the Comptroller of the State, under the administration of Gov. Worth, showed that the actual expenditures for the ordinary operation of the State government did not reach $200,000. Under the present Radical government, the ordinary and extraordinary expenditures of the State government, according to the new regime, will be about as follows:

Interest on funded State debt, old, over	$960,000
On new debt to be funded	240,000
Salaries, Legislature, Charities &c.	400,000
Public Schools	500,000
County and Municipal Taxes	500,000
Penitentiary, till completed per year	100,000
	$2,700,000

The above is as small an amount of tax as North Carolina can get along with and carry on the State government, in accordance with the new principles and policy of the Radicals. If the annual interest on the funded State debt is to be paid, the responsibility of the State, already assumed directly, will require over $1,200,000. It, in addition to that, the State should be required to meet the interest due on bonds issued and to be issued, upon which she is security, the annual interest would be increased. The new system of townships will be very expensive. Ordinarily, the County taxes equal the State tax, but, under this new system, they will greatly exceed it. The new Court system, in the number of its officiary, is to be burdensome,—there being six additional Judges and four Solicitors, but, besides this, litigation is to be doubly as tedious and doubly as expensive as heretofore.

The new Code of Civil Procedure is seriously provoking and troublesome. Under our old system, almost every Sheriff and Magistrate of ordinary capacity, who had been in office a few years, could give advice and counsel to planter people as to judicial proceedings of an ordinary kind. Indeed, the people themselves understood the practical workings of our old system. The new one will require fifty years for the people to understand. It must be annulled, and the people will call a Convention to remove the fungus, as soon as it can be legitimately done.

In the above estimated taxes, we have said nothing of the expense of HOLDEN'S MILITIA. Without it, every man must pay $8 or $9 TAX, WHERE HE PAID ONE DOLLAR BEFORE, if the Radical programme is carried out! With it, who can tell the cost!

THE WHITE MEN OF THE WEST are called upon, for the first time, in the approaching election, to vote for a negro for office,—and that, too, for the high position of a Presidential Elector. At the last election, the Radicals purposely and studiously refrained from placing the name of any negro on their State ticket, for two reasons: In the first place, the selfish and greedy carpetbaggers wanted all the offices for themselves, and, in the second place, they were afraid to insult the white voters of the West by offering them a negro candidate for their suffrages.

They now place the name of a negro on their Electoral ticket and offer it to the white voters of the West. They have done this for two reasons. In the first place, the office pays nothing,—it is a cheap bid for the colored vote; and, in the second, they have become emboldened by the results of the April election, and think that if the white men of the West voted for the Radical Constitution, they are ready to swallow anything!

See, fellow-citizens of the West, how these Radicals presume upon your remissness! Remember that, in voting the Radical Electoral ticket, you have to go the whole of it,—negro and all!

TICKETS! TICKETS!

We again call the attention of our friends to the necessity of having the tickets for each county printed in time and carefully distributed.

We learn that the order is, to put on the ballot the Electoral ticket, with the full names of the Electors, to be voted for all over the State. On the same slip, for each District, the name of the candidate for Congress for the proper District, and, also, the name of the Senator for any Senatorial District declared vacant, as well as the name of the delegate for the House of Representatives for each county declared vacant. This will require care in ordering your tickets. Be sure to have enough tickets printed; get them in time and have them placed in proper hands.

We especially call the attention of candidates for Electors, for Congress, &c., and the officers of the Clubs, to this matter.

THE "SQUIRTS."—The filthy "Squirts," who write for the "Woman Insulter," are entitled to all the profit resulting from their labors. Their attacks upon the Sentinel, and its Editors, are the best commendation to decent people they can give us. As to the Senior, puppies, barking at the moon, do it as much harm, as the yelping of the curs of the Standard at him.

From the National Intelligencer.

THE BRUTAL INSULT TO SOUTHERN WOMEN.

The Radical emissaries are not satisfied, however, merely with stirring up the negroes to turbulence, a general arming, hatred of the whites, and then leaving their semi-barbarous nature to work itself out in the crimes we have detailed. The work does not go on rapidly enough to suit them, and accordingly we find such direct instigation as the following, taken from the Raleigh Weekly Standard, the regular organ of the Radical party in North Carolina. The animus and effect of this infamous article cannot be mistaken:

"But wherever else you work, don't forget to work among the women. The Confederacy wouldn't have lasted a year if it hadn't been for them. O a good rebel woman is worth a dozen rebel men. Go after the women then. They will make their husbands shout for Grant and Colfax until they are hoarse, if you will manage to replace some of the diamond rings and laces Frank Blair stole from them when he was here. And don't hesitate to throw your arms around their necks now and then, when their husbands are not around, and give them a good ——; they all like it, and the Yankee you are the better it takes. Our experience with female rebs is, that with all their sins, they have a vast amount of human nature, and only want to have it appreciated to be the most loving creatures imaginable. Scalawags and carpet-baggers, don't fail, therefore, as you canvass the State, to look after the women. You are all good looking and they know it; but with native modesty, like New England girls, they like to be approached first. Don't be afraid of their eyes—they glare like young leopards by day-light; but under the moon no blue, death-stricken fawn's is half so tender or half so deep. Don't read Judge Pearson's letter to them, but give them Byron and Shelly in volumes, and you will have them in your arms, if not in your party, in less than a week."

The wives and daughters of the people thus marked out for the insulting advances and lust of Radical emissaries, it will be remembered, are the wives and daughters of the same men who, for four years, resisted the entire power of the Federal Government, and were able to put three hundred thousand men in the field. They fought, as we believe, in an entirely mistaken cause. Whether they will be able to make as good a contest in defence of the honor of their wives, daughters, and sisters, thus marked out as the prey of the spoiler and the libertine, is a question which Wall street and its speculators would do well to consider.—But we turn from men, who think of little save sordid considerations, to the wives and daughters of Northern Republicans, and we ask them, as Christian and virtuous women, what they have to say of a party which thus makes female virtue its jest, and just its chosen weapon of Radical propagandism! We freely leave it to them to decide whether the wretches who write, and the baser wretches of the Radical leaders who countenance and promote such articles, can meet with any punishment too prompt or too severe. We ask them to consider the condition of the people of the South, subjected to such insults from this party, and to ask what must be the feelings of a father or a husband, when it is asserted that his daughter and his wife are no better than so many bawds at heart? And this is General Grant's "peace!"

We thank the Intelligencer for the scathing. The infamous and cowardly article of the Radical organ, in this City, has excited universal indignation, we are gratified to see, among all respectable journals and people at the North. The repeated author of the dastardly insult to the women of the South has fled this city,—his name has been removed, whether temporarily and as a blind, or not, we are not advised,—certain little men of straw have been put up as "Proprietors,"—and no Editor, upon whom to fix responsibility for any thing he may write, is announced. Worn, therefore, the Radical organ, in which this brutal attack upon the ladies was made, being the organ of power whose wrath which it has aroused, seeks to avoid the results of its deliberate utterances, it behooves all concerned, to let the public know who are its Editors, and what authority they have to assay what has been said in its columns!

We charge directly that the same "Proprietors," and, so far as the public know, the same editors, who are now connected with the Standard, were connected with it when the infamous article appeared. There is no evidence that "N. Paige" was its author,—no evidence that he has not been made the mere scape-goat for the sins of others.—None of the parties concerned have repudiated the article. All that the present management have done is to seek immunity from the consequences of the atrocity.

We shall, therefore, continue to hold the RADICAL ORGAN responsible for its low, fiendish, wanton and libidinous insult.

THE COMING ELECTIONS.—Elections will be held in the present month in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia, and Nebraska, and the following statistical summary may be of interest: Pennsylvania at the last Presidential election gave 20,075 majority for the Republicans. At the last State election (1867) she gave 922 majority for the Democrats. The offices to be filled this year are those of Auditor and Surveyor Generals and Congressmen. Ohio gave a Republican majority at the Presidential election in 1864, of 54,751, and at the gubernatorial election last year, of 2,983. A full Congressional ticket and all the State officers, but the Governor, are to be chosen this year. Indiana gave a Republican majority of 20,189 for President in 1864, and of 14,202 at the State election in 1866.—Speaker Colfax's district (the Eleventh) returned him to Congress by a majority of 2,428. A full State and Congressional ticket is to be chosen this year. West Virginia gave a majority of 12,714 for the Republicans at the last Presidential election, and 6,644 at the gubernatorial election in 1866. A full State and Congressional ticket is to be chosen on the 22d inst. Nebraska was not a State until 1866, when a general election resulted in a Republican majority of 145, out of an aggregate vote of 8,041. She also chooses a State and Congressional ticket this month.

MISSOURI.—Mr. Adams, the esteemed correspondent of the "World," and otherwise connected with the press, has returned, as we learn, to this city, after a protracted journeying in the West. Mr. Adams brings the gratifying intelligence that Missouri will be for Seymour and Blair by a large majority. We place great reliance upon information from a source so calm, rational, and observant.—National Intelligencer, 6th.

THE GLORIOUS MEETING IN ASHEVILLE!

FIRE IN THE MOUNTAINS!!

ELOQUENT SPEECHES AND GREAT ENTHUSIASM!!!

Make Way for the Great West!

ASHEVILLE, Oct. 2, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Conservative and Democratic Mass Meeting and Barbecue at this place, on the 1st. inst., was more decidedly successful, in every respect, than the most sanguine among us had anticipated. Though a very busy time with our farmers, there were present the largest number of persons ever before assembled in Western North Carolina. Even the grand rally here in 1844 was not, I am informed, equal to that of yesterday. So vast, indeed, was the multitude, that no one was foolish enough to attempt to "count the noses."—The only way in which to approximate anything like a correct estimate was, by calculating the probable number who could stand upon a given space, and, also, by multiplying the number around one table by the whole number of tables. According to calculations of that kind and the opinions of many gentlemen who are accustomed to seeing large assemblies, the audience, including men, women and children, may be safely put down at TEN THOUSAND. The Radicals, themselves, admit that there could not have been less than six or eight thousand; but that estimate is certainly many thousands too small.

Early in the morning of the first instant the several roads approaching the town were crowded with mounted men, foot men and waggons. By 8 or 9 o'clock, A. M., the public square and the streets were literally packed, and many of the house tops covered, with enthusiastic men, patriotic women and laughing children. To organize this living mass of confusion into order was the duty of the Chief Marshal of the day, Capt. W. Pink Welch, of Haywood county; and right handsomely was the duty performed. The nine hundred and ninety-nine mounted men (ascertained by actual count) were formed by counties on the public square in the following order, viz: Haywood, Capt. M. H. Love and Lieut. Furgeson, commanding, in front; Madison and Yancy, Major Harris and Capt. M. E. Carter, commanding, second, in rear; Henderson and Transylvania, S. V. Pickens, Esq., commanding, third, in rear; Buncombe, Captains W. W. Smith, Thos. D. Johnston, and Nat. Atkinson, commanding, fourth, in rear. The foot men were then formed in proper order near the mounted men. While this work was progressing the audience was entertained with delightful music from the brass band that had been engaged for the day. This band was made up of the surviving members of the brass bands of the 16th and 25th N. C. Regiments. The organization having been thus perfected, and all being in breathless expectation, the "Stars and Stripes" began slowly to ascend the pole that stood in the midst of the multitude.—No sooner had it arisen above the heads of the horsemen, than such a shout as never before went up from these mountains, burst upon the air. When the flag had reached the top of the pole, a height of eighty feet, all was silence. The attention of every one seemed to have been arrested by the apparent struggles of the flag to free itself from the pole and float out upon the breeze. Many had doubtless thought this little incident emblematic of our glorious Constitution now struggling to escape from the cruel hands that have seized upon it and spread again its broad ægis over the whole land, South as well as North. But soon "that standard sheet" spread out its ample folds, and, simultaneously, it was saluted with two guns from the "Beau Catcher" mountain, a quarter of a mile distant. Far above the roar of the artillery was again heard the deafening yells of enthusiastic men, commingled with expressions of ecstatic joy on the part of the ladies. When this had somewhat subsided, a procession of the mounted men began through the streets and around the town. During this procession, which was so well conducted by Capt. Welch, the artillery on the mountain continued firing at regular intervals, until twenty-one rounds had been discharged,—one for each county in this 7th. Congressional District. When the last gun had fired, the procession of mounted men and the immense concourse of footmen, ladies, children, negroes, and waggons, made their way to "Camp Patton," a beautiful grove near the town, where a stand had been prepared for the speakers. All being seated on the grass on either side of a deep ravine, Jas. H. Merriman, Esq. introduced to the audience Genl. T. L. Clingman, who immediately proceeded to deliver one of the most powerful speeches I have ever heard. I shall not attempt a report of his remarks. Suffice it to say of them, that they were well received, being delivered in a spirit of great moderation and with singular force, power, and dignity. I will here state that the General is doing much good in these Western counties. His health being now much improved, he will soon go to Mitchell county, where he will labor earnestly, and no doubt successfully, for the cause until victory is achieved in November next.

Gen. C. was followed by Col. Wm. M. Cocke, of this place, in a speech of over two hour's length. To say that this speech elicited frequent applause and occasionally brought tears from the eyes of hundreds, but poorly describes its powerful and almost wonderful effort. I will only add that the Colonel fully sustains the reputation which he has before won, of being one of the very best speakers in Western North Carolina.

After the close of Col. C's. remarks, it was announced that dinner was then ready, and all persons, old and young, rich and poor, white and black, were invited to partake of the rich viands which Buncombe's hospitality had provided. The audience was then divided into companies of convenient sizes and conducted to the table, a hundred yards distant from the speaker's stand. A temporary table being set apart for the negroes, all persons were invited to eat, at the tap of the drum, to their stomach's content. And they did eat, and I did eat, and we ALL ate, and then there was enough left on the tables to feed an army! But that the negroes took care to put into their bags; and many of them will probably have "barbecue bread" till Christmas. How they'll thank the good Conservatives and Democrats as they eat their bread this winter, and curse John pool and the Radicals, who, at their barbecue here, a few days ago, wouldn't give the negroes but half a loaf!

This part of the day's exercises being over, all returned to the Speaker's stand, and, having listened to much good music, they were entertained with a speech from Mr. —— Wade, of Macon, Ga. Mr. W. displays considerable learning, and great familiarity with the momentous issues now before the country. His speech was able and no doubt did much good. Next upon the stage, appeared the venerable Judge J. G. Bailey. Judge Bailey had not for years before addressed his fellow citizens on political questions, and but for the truly alarming condition of our country, and the impending danger to our Constitution, he could not have been induced to enter the campaign.—The Judge proved conclusively to every intelligent and unprejudiced mind, the unconstitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts of Congress, and clearly showed that those and the other revolutionary Acts of Congress, if allowed to continue in full force, would inevitably lead to bloodshed, and, in the end, the utter subversion of Constitutional government in America. He recommended the peaceful remedy of the ballot in November next, and predicted the certain election of Seymour and Blair. But I will not say more of this great speech. I learn that the Judge has been requested to furnish a copy of his remarks for publication. I trust that he will find it convenient to do so; but whether he does or not, he may have the proud satisfaction of knowing that he has contributed incalculably to the advancement of Seymour and Blair interests in Western North Carolina. The close of this speech ended the speaking of the day. It being announced that there would be a torchlight procession that night, the crowd dispersed.

Some five or six hundred persons being present in town on that night, they were organized by Capt. W. P. Welch and Thos. D. Johnston, at 7 30 o'clock, P. M. The procession, soon after, passed over the streets, bearing a transparency for each county in this Congressional District.—Upon all these were mottos. On that of Buncombe was, for instance, the motto, "One Currency for all;" "Buncombe pledges 200 Conservative majority," &c. On Clay, "Had rather be right than President." On Cleaveland, "The Home of Durham." On Polk, "Down with the Whiskey Ring," &c., &c., &c. The procession, in passing the "Carolina House," where Gen. Clingman was stopping, called on the General for a speech. He replied in a very pleasant talk of some fifteen minutes length and then bid the procession "good night." Returning to the public square, where many ladies had assembled, Gen. R. B. Vance was called on for a speech. The General responded in an eloquent, and, at the same time, humorous manner. Every body laughed and felt that he was a wiser, if not a better, man when Gen. V. took his seat. Mr. Shotwell, of the Vindicator, was next called out. He took for his text some of the mottoes on the transparencies before him; and, though I am not much of a military man, I think he handled his shot right well. Many other gentlemen were called out,—among them, Wm. M. Davies, Esq., Capt. Dupree, Capt. Thos. D. Johnston, Capt. Welch, David Proffit, Esq., of Yancey county, and others, all of whom responded in appropriate remarks.

And here closed the labors of the first of October; and ever since, we all feel that a better time is coming for this part of our State. The indications in every county of the District are most flattering indeed. I have not a single doubt about the success of our ticket and the election of Plato Durham to Congress by a LARGE MAJORITY. It is given out from Radical sources here that the Hon (?) A. H. Jones anticipates a defeat. Well may he anticipate that result. We are organized, and, what is as good, we are working energetically to enlighten our people on the issues of the day. I repeat, we SHALL carry WESTERN CAROLINA. Let our friends in the Central and Eastern counties but work as we are at work here, and victory will perch on our banners in November next. DEMOCRAT.

MARRIED:

In this City on the 7th inst., by J. P. Adams, Esq., Mr. JOHN L. WILLIAMS, to Miss HELEN J. JOHNSON, all of this City.

DIED:

At "Clover Dale," Pasquotank County, N. C., on Friday evening, Sept. 25th, 1868, Mrs. MARY B., wife of Richard B. Creecy, Esq., and only daughter of the late Edmund Perkins, of Pasquotank aged 44 years, 8 months and 19 days.

For twelve successive weeks, she endured her affliction with that sublime fortitude which alone characterizes the true and devout Christian.—Though her sufferings were intense and apparently unbearable, she was never heard during her illness to sigh, murmur or complain at such an afflicting dispensation; but, throughout, evinced a spirit of patience, meekness and submission commensurate with her spotless and exemplary life and character and emblematical of the reward awaiting her at God's right hand.—She fully realized the fact that her sufferings would bring her nearer to the cross of Christ, and that her widow, though for a season, would work out for her a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." She died as she had lived, a zealous and exemplary Christian, expressing at all times an unwavering confidence in Christ, with the glorious hope of a blissful immortality.

She had been a member, in spirit and in truth, of the Protestant Episcopal Church for 19 years, a living monument and shining light, attesting at all times the reality of the Christian Religion by her pious walk and godly conversation—the outward visible sign of an inward spiritual grace.

She leaves a disconsolate husband and nine heart-broken, sorrow-stricken children, to mourn their irreparable loss. As a friend, she was kind, considerate, generous and forgiving; as a Christian, devout, charitable and zealous; as a wife, thoughtful, affectionate and confiding; and as a mother, all that a mother could be. Sacred and holy will her pious teachings be treasured up by those whom she taught to say, "Our Father who art in Heaven." She is gone! Teach them, Oh Lord, to say 'Thy will be done." W.

Prof. GEO. F. HANSEN, whose death was announced in your Wednesday's paper, was a native of Germany, but had resided for many years in New York and South Carolina. He was a most amiable and estimable husband and father; a man of singular purity of morals, and of chivalrous honor; a gentleman of the old school, polite and dignified; long an exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church; and for 18 years, at St. Mary's Institution in this City chief Professor of Music, in which, both as a science and art, he was eminently skilled. His connection with St. Mary's was broken a few months ago by old age and disabilities caused by a fall from a carriage, from which he never recovered.

Prof. Hansen had often said that he should labor out his three score years and ten, and then go to his rest. Five more days would have completed the patriarchal time. He died in peace, and those who best knew the purity, and the sincere but unobtrusive piety of his long life, cannot doubt that he now rests in the bosom of his Father and his God. R.

Messrs. Dewese and McDonald are invited to be present at these meetings. The time will be divided with them.

BARBECUE AT OAK GROVE.—The Democrats and Conservatives of Lick Creek, Fish Dam, Crabtree and Barton's Creek Districts, in this County, have combined for the purpose of having a grand Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Oak Grove, on Saturday, the 24th inst. The amplest arrangements have been made for the occasion, and all persons, irrespective of party, are cordially invited.

Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Col. W. J. Green, Hon. D. G. Fowle, Seaton Gales, Esq., Capt. B. W. Justice, and W. W. Guess, Esq., of Orange, will be present to address the people.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—Wanted by a lady, who has had ten years' experience in teaching, a situation as Teacher either in a private family or in an Academy. See advertisement.

THE RALLY LAST NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the rain, the meeting in the Eastern Ward, last night, was a large and enthusiastic one,—some three or four hundred good men and true being present.

Capt. J. J. Davis, one of our Candidates, at large, for Elector, addressed the people in a lengthy and most forcible speech, which was listened to with great interest and gratification. Shorter, but eloquent and effective speeches, were made by Maj. R. W. York, Col. Ruas and M. A. Bledsoe, Esq.

The meeting was characterized by the finest spirit, throughout.

GOLDEN WEDDING. Our venerable friend, James Litchford, Esq., and his worthy wife, were surprised with a 'Golden Wedding' celebration, on Wednesday evening, which had been arranged by their children. A small company of friends were present to tender their congratulations and best wishes, and good cheer and pleasant reminiscences prevailed. Mr. and Mrs. Litchford are, we believe, the oldest married couple in the city, and have walked through a long and useful life together. We wish them still many years of happiness.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—An attempt was made, a few nights ago, to make a forcible entrance into the dwelling of W. R. Andrews, Esq., on Fayetteville street. The burglar had succeeded in removing the glass from the front and rear doors of the passage, before he was heard.—Before he could enter, Mr. A. drew his revolver upon him and fired, but he escaped unhurt, and no trace has been heard of him. It is thought that similar attempts have been made since, and, also, upon other dwellings. Our friends will oblige us by reporting the facts of all outrages to us at an early period. Our police and people must keep a sharp eye. There are so many persons in the city who seem to have no visible mode or means of living, that robberies may be expected to be frequent.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—An accommodation Train on the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road, for the Agricultural Fair at Henderson, to be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 14th, 15th, and 16th, will run as follows:

Leave Raleigh at	1	P. M.
Arrive at Henderson,	4 45	"
Leave Henderson,	4 45	"
Arrive at Raleigh,	9.00	"

Persons desiring to visit the Fair, on either of the days of its continuance, will be furnished a return ticket for one fare.—Persons not purchasing tickets will be charged full fare.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

Registration commences on next Thursday. We again call on all Democrats and Conservatives to register,—REGISTER,—REGISTER,—and that at once. No matter how enthusiastic they may be, no matter how faithfully they may attend their Club meetings, they will be impotent for any effective good, unless they register! That is the great duty.

BARBECUE AT RANSOM'S BRIDGE.

A gentleman, who takes great interest in the canvass, suggests the propriety of holding a Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Ransom's Bridge, Nash County, about the 28th of Oct., uniting the people of Nash, Franklin, Halifax and Warren in a grand rally; and he further suggests the names of the following gentlemen, that now occur to him, and such others as friends may select, as a Committe of Arrangements to do all things necessary to its success:

NASH.—H G Williams, Dr N Sills, John A Harrison, W T Wright, Capt H Avent.

WARREN.—T N Alston, Solomon Williams, J Buxton Williams, Edward Alston, Dr Edgar Williams.

FRANKLIN.—Jno C Davis, A D Williams, Joshua Perry, Archibald Alston.

HALIFAX.—M L Wiggins, A H Davis, Henry Jones and Joseph Kimball.

"Work."

A meeting of the Swift Creek Seymour and Blair Club was held at Franklin's, on Saturday, Oct., 3d., 1868.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, There appeared in the Standard, of the 19th. ult., an article headed "Work," which is a downright and wilful insult to the female sex of the Southern States:

Be it therefore Resolved, That we look with contempt upon the author of said article and all who endorse the same, and that we will hold all who support the said paper as beneath the notice of any respectable man, white or colored; and, further, that we will neither aid or patronize any institution or business that may be hereafter advertised in its columns, unless the author of said article be published to the world, in order that he may be blasted with the infamy he so much deserves.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at Franklin's, Saturday, Oct. 17th., at 10 o'clock. A full attendance is desired for the transaction of important business.

THE SUMAC TRADE.

In your paper of Wednesday morning, you inquire about Sumac.

The leaves only are valuable; the berries and twigs, if gathered with them, reduce the market price. The time for collecting it (in this latitude) is from the first or middle of June till frost, after which it is worthless.

There are a number of different species; of those growing in this part of the State, only the two, known in trade as the white and black, are of value. Both these are abundant in this and adjoining counties, and probably throughout the State, and gathering it would doubtless pay well.

Before fit for use it must be ground, which process requires a mill constructed expressly for the purpose, and considerable outlay for labor;—and by it, the weight is lessened about one fourth.

The price, in seaboard markets, for the unground, this season, has been from $1 25 to $1 50 per hundred pounds.

Raleigh, Oct. 7, 1868. X.

GEN. McCLELLAN'S LETTER,

Addressed to the great Mass Democratic Meeting in New York, Oct. 5, 1868:

NEW YORK, Oct. 3, 1868.

DOUGLAS TAYLOR, Chairman, &c:

MY DEAR SIR—I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your invitation to preside over the democratic meeting of Monday next.

I have long since determined to abstain from further participation in political life, and therefore find myself compelled to decline the honor you proffer me. I should, however, be glad to attend the meeting as a private citizen, did not engagements of a domestic nature, rendered imperative by my long absence from the country, detain me from the city upon the day in question.

I gladly avail myself of this opportunity to express my continued hearty sympathy with the democratic cause—[loud cheers]—and my ardent wishes for the success of those constitutional principles for which the recent war was undertaken by the North.—Separated as I thus am from the distinguished soldier who has been chosen as the leader of our opponents, I know that you will agree with me in the highest respect for the service he has rendered our country; but it is my conviction that the measures of the party which has placed him in nomination are but continuation of strife, and can never restore peace or constitutional supremacy, and thus complete the work which he and other brave soldiers so ably commenced. The war was only the first epoch in the history of the struggle in which we have been so long engaged.

The work of the soldier is, I trust, forever ended, and it remains for the people to fulfil the great object for which they or their sons and brothers were called to the field.

A restored Union of States and hearts; an invigorated constitution, to be firmly and faithfully supported; the maintenance of the national credit inviolate; a re-establishment of national and State rights in all their integrity—and thus true harmony and lasting peace—these are objects for which every citizen should now strive; and believing these to rest in the success of the democratic cause, by the election of the eminent statesmen selected to represent the party, it is my intention to sustain that cause as a private citizen. [Renewed applause.]

With the request that you will convey to the gentlemen of the committee, and my other friends for whom you act, my sincere thanks for the compliment they have paid me,

I am, most truly yours,
GEORGE B. McCLELLAN.

LARGE POLITICAL DEMONSTRATION IN PENNSYLVANIA.

PITTSBURG, PA., Oct. 5.

The democrats held an immense mass meeting here to-day. Preparations had been made on a large scale, and no efforts were spared to make it the greatest demonstration ever seen in Western Pennsylvania. Delegations from the country were numerous, and the procession was two hours and ten minutes passing a given point. Business houses and residences along various portions of the route were decorated with flags, Chinese lanterns, &c.

Among the distinguished speakers present were Hons. George H. Pendleton, Heister Clymer, Edgar Cowan, and others. The torch light procession to-night was a grand affair. Many buildings were brilliantly illuminated.

THE PROSPECT IN PENNSYLVANIA.—R. T. Daniel, Esq., chairman of the Conservative State Committee for this State, has just received a letter from Hon. Wm. Wallace, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for Pennsylvania, giving a most gratifying statement of affairs there. As is well known, the contest in Pennsylvania is bound to be close, for the campaign has been hotter than for many years, and the vote will be much larger. But Mr. Wallace says that his advices from all parts of the State assure him of the success of the Democracy. He says the National Democracy are alive to the importance of carrying Pennsylvania, and will spare no effort to do it.—Rich. Enquirer.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Our Washington correspondent writes:

"Good reports continue to be received from Pennsylvania. I saw and conversed with a prominent gentleman from that State on Monday, whose judgment last year as to the result in Pennsylvania was verified to the letter, and who now expresses himself thoroughly sanguine that the Democrats will carry the election on Tuesday next.—Democrats here are much more hopeful and confident, and fully expect the industrious and active campaigners in the Keystone State to accomplish a perfect triumph."

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Democratic column is moving on to sure and certain victory in Philadelphia. Nothing can now prevent an overwhelming Democratic triumph to-morrow week. The Democracy are jubilant and enthusiastic; the Radicals are despondent and dispirited.—Philadelphia Age, 5th.

For the Sentinel.

Card from J. H. Moore, Esq., late Steward of the Insane Asylum.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—In the Sentinel, of the 24th. September, which I did not see until yesterday, owing to the inconvenience I labor under for want of mail facilities, I notice a Card from Dr. Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum of North Carolina, in regard to some statements made in the Sentinel, in relation to wood contracts for that Institution, which I feel called upon, in justice both to myself and the Sentinel, to notice.

Dr. Grissom says, in his card, that when he took charge of the Institution, report was made to him by those engaged in the engineering department, "that the wood on hand, being, to a great extent, green old field pine, was of inferior quality and unfit for immediate use," and Mr. James Duffy, the fireman, certifies "that the greater portion of the wood on hand, when Dr. Grissom came, was, when delivered, green old field pine, and in bad condition, at present."

Now, I assert, positively, that when Dr. Grissom came, there was not a cord of "green old field pine" on the Asylum grounds, and that instead of a greater portion of the wood on hand" being green old field pine, "when delivered," there was but a small portion of old field pine at all, and that in a perfectly seasonable state, having been put there last winter and spring, most of it, by B. W. Green, and was, for the ordinary purposes for which wood is used at the Asylum in warm or moderate weather, almost if not quite as good as the forest pine or oak.

Dr. Grissom does not state the facts fully in regard to the proposed contract with Col. Harris, and as, no doubt, it was owing to a defective memory, I will state them as they occurred. Soon after Dr. Grissom "congratulated me," as he did, "upon being elected Steward, until the next annual election," (the first Saturday in November,) by the Board of Supervisors, which he told me was unanimous, (Brodie, the negro, at first objecting, but afterwards agreeing,) he informed me that Col. C. L. Harris had proposed to furnish the Asylum with 1000 cords of wood at $4 per cord, and that he had partly agreed to the proposal.—I told him that I had already engaged a quantity of wood at three dollars, and that I thought I should be able to get a supply at that price; that we had not paid higher last winter when the roads were at the worst, than three dollars and a half; and I was confident we could do, at least, as well, this winter, and that the paying to Col. Harris of four dollars per cord would be giving him five hundred or one thousand dollars of the public money, which would be wrong. Dr. G. then observed that he did not know how he should get out of the scrape, as Harris expected the contract and he had partly promised to give it to him. I proposed to him to advertise in the Standard and Sentinel for proposals for wood, and if Col. Harris could not afford to furnish wood as cheap as other parties, he would have no ground of complaint, as, being a member of the Board, he ought to see the affairs of the Asylum conducted economically and as cheaply as possible. Dr. Grissom acquiesced in the suggestion and nothing more was said on the subject between us for several days. Perhaps eight or ten days after the above conversation, I wrote out an advertisement and submitted it to him. He took it, saying he would submit it to the Board that afternoon and have it inserted in the papers next morning. The advertisement did not "come out" next morning—but I did—and no advertisement for wood proposals has made its appearance as yet.

I am confident that, had proposals been advertised for, contracts could have been made at three dollars. I had engaged, before I left, over four hundred cords at three dollars, mostly in small parcels, and I was awaiting the action of the Legislature in regard to appropriations, to close some larger contracts. I suppose most of those who had proposed to bring from twenty to fifty cords, have not complied, after the changes that took place, thinking the contracts would not be confirmed. There was one contract for one hundred cords stopped after a part had been delivered.

I have made the above statements, because I thought truth and justice demanded them. They might have been made more full, but I have contented myself with only the main facts connected with this wood affair. The statements I have made I know to be true. I could, were it necessary, give an exact account of all the wood at the Asylum when I left there, from entries in my note book, in which I kept, at all times, an exact statement of the wood, as well as other stores, on hand, and from which I have made the foregoing statements.

I intend no offence to any one concerned, but I am not willing that erroneous impressions shall be made on the public mind in a matter with which I am at all connected, if I can help it.

Late Steward of the Insane Asylum.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8, P. M.

L. C. Adams, a Confederate soldier, who killed a Union soldier, in Lexington, Ky., for which he was sentenced to the Dry Tortugas for life, (and which was commuted to twelve years in the penitentiary at Concord, New Hampshire,) has been released by the President, on the recommendation of Holt, supported by Schofield.

Gen. Thomas is expected here to-morrow.

Gen. Gordon Granger, who commands the Department of the Cumberland during the absence of Thomas, will have his Headquarters at Memphis.

Meade's report of the Camilla riot was handed to the President, to-day. The character of the report has not transpired.

Sherman asks for more troops to fight the Indians.

Chase is preparing to start on his Southern Circuit.

It is stated that Schofield has again postponed the Dyer trial to November the 19th.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 8, P. M.

John Perkins, an ex-Federal soldier from Massachusetts, who came to Virginia in the 2nd. New Hampshire Regiment, will be hung, to-morrow, at Portsmouth, for rape.

Benjamin Jefferson, a negro, his accomplice, who was also to have been hung to-morrow, has had his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life by the Governor.

A negro has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for two years, for attempting to violate the widow of an ex-Confederate General, in the South side of Virginia.

FROM NEW ORLEANS—THE LEGISLATURE.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 8, P. M.

The bill which passed the Senate, amending the registration law, and forbidding Registrars from going beyond the law, was killed, on yesterday, in the House. There are writs of mandimus before the Courts, daily, in cases of Registrars refusing registration to persons naturalized.

SANTA ANNA ORDERED TO LEAVE CUBA.

HAVANA, Oct. 8, P. M.

Santa Anna, for reasons not transpired, has been ordered to leave Cuba.

The FINEST TRAINED HORSES ever seen in a Circus.

Thrilling Acts and Exciting Feats,

Performed by Artists who have NO PARALLELS in their vocation.

A VARIETY TO PLEASE EVERY TASTE.

☞ No Circus, either in this country or in Europe, has so many FIRST-CLASS PERFORMERS as STONE & MURRAY.

The Troupe has never been equaled, and is beyond

Absolutely Richer in Talent

than any three other exhibitions combined.

The ENTERTAINMENTS of THIS CIRCUS are presented to its patrons surrounded by the attributes of respectability and elegance, and purified of all objectionable features.

The present tour of STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS will convince all those who attend its exhibitions that it is worthy of the claim of being

"The Best in the World."

☞ STONE & MURRAY'S CIRCUS travels entirely by Railroad, on special Trains; therefore it makes no attempt to deceive the public by a parade of empty wagons drawn by weary horses, but its Exhibitions, which are generally acknowledged by all the leading journals of the country to be to those of any other Circus, will be given

On a Scale of Grandeur,

and with such BRILLIANT EFFECT, that they will be events long to be remembered by every patron.

To make the announced Exhibitions unprecedentedly successful and attractive, pledge themselves to redeem every promise of excellence, feeling confident that their extra large Troupe will excite the admiration and fulfil the expectations of their patrons.

STONE & MURRAY

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act, and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the first section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, rejoicing in trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, what the interest of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the states by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought to right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the lab rer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering;) and all political instrumentalities designed to accomplish negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of unnecessary offices, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Return of states in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national ingress, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated the most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of espionage and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burdens of the debt created by the war. It has impeached the President for his constitutional opinions and for the official acts of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are tottering on their base, and should it succeed in October next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to destroy any state of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the preemption or by means of limited lands and sold in reasonable quantities, and to more but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the states and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pledges in no doubtful words—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with peace and fair election, we confidently believe they will be decided by a large majority of the people, and with that endorsement public confidence will be restored in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about those wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the falsecry of revolution and war, thereby using them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK,

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11 731, payable on his decease. This sum paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8 474.

The difference between these sums ($3 277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy, in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death, is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an amount cash, dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable as the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taxing all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.
